

Dance with the Dancers Returns with Broadway and NYCB Dancers

The show WILL go on although the July residency of New York City Ballet at SPAC is uncertain and area Broadway shows are cancelled. Total Body Trifecta's new TBT87 virtual studio will offer three online ballet barre classes taught by a trio of talent from New York City Ballet and Broadway to fill the void.

Originally, three DWTD classes were already scheduled by owner Mary Anne Fantauzzi for the week of July 13-18, but rather than cancel the annual tradition since 1998, she reached out to three favorite teachers with the prospect of offering Spring Zoom classes instead.

Rising NYCB star Gilbert Bolden III will teach a classical ballet barre with a mini-variation on Monday, May 25 from 2-3pm. Broadway pro (Carousel, An American in Paris) and former NYCB dancer David Prottas will teach "Breakin' It Down at the Barre" set to pop music on Thursday, May 28 from 11am-12pm. NYCB dancer and School of American Ballet master teacher Andrew Scordato will teach Core de Ballet on Thursday, June 4 from 11am -12pm.

The cost is $10 per class. Registration is required to receive a Zoom invitation. PayPal access code is totbtri@aol.com. Mail checks to: Total Body Trifecta, 15 Red Coach Trail, Ballston Spa, N. Y. 12020.
